

ROCKLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Sixty-Fifth Commencement

MONDAY

THE NINETEENTH OF MAY

TWO THOUSAND TWENTY FIVE

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 19, 2025

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on completing an incredible chapter of your life!

As we begin our Commencement Ceremony, be sure to relish your educational accomplishment. You owe it to yourself for all your hard work. Be sure to take a moment to thank those who were important in your Rockland Community College journey—family members, faculty, staff, classmates, and friends.

As you celebrate finishing this episode of your life and begin to wonder about the next, let today's ceremony serve as a reminder of your ability to accomplish great things, no matter what challenges you face. When you have a moment of self-doubt, simply remember May 19, 2025!

We look forward to learning about your future achievements as our next generation of leaders. Know that RCC will always be a resource for you, educationally, professionally, and personally.

And finally, remember that life is like a book. Some chapters are happy, some are sad, some are exciting, and some are dull, but if you never turn the page, you will never know what the next one has in store for you. As our Commencement page notes, "One chapter ends, a world of opportunities begins."

Once again, congratulations!

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Scott J. Kalicki

May 19, 2025

Dear 2025 Graduates:

It is my great privilege to take this opportunity to congratulate Rockland Community College's graduating class of 2025! You should be extremely proud of achieving this academic milestone.

Many of you have attended classes while balancing a job and other personal responsibilities and made earning your degree a top priority. Your accomplishments are truly impressive and I urge you to take time to reflect on the hard work that has guided you to this very moment.

It is with great pleasure that I join with your families and friends in sending my heartfelt congratulations to you today.

You have learned, grown and experienced new and exciting things. Regardless of whether you have decided to join the workforce or further pursue your education, I hope your studies at RCC will help you accomplish all that you desire.

Sending my best wishes to this year's graduates of Rockland Community College. May you all have a bright, successful and rewarding future.

Sincerely yours,

Edwin J. Day
Rockland County Executive

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Crismelly Morales

Crismelly Morales is an immigration attorney who advocates for immigrants and their families. As the founder of the Law Office of Crismelly Morales, Esq., P.C., Ms. Morales focuses on family-based immigration, humanitarian relief for vulnerable immigrants, and non-detained removal defense. Her passion for immigration law is deeply personal—she immigrated from the Dominican Republic and understands firsthand the challenges and hopes of pursuing the American dream. She has since built a career championing the rights of immigrants.

A proud graduate of SUNY Rockland Community College, Ms. Morales excelled academically during her time here, earning membership in the Phi Theta Kappa and Alpha Beta Gamma honor societies. In 2012, she received the Hispanic Heritage Award for Academic Excellence. She graduated with an A.A.S. in Paralegal Studies in 2013. She credits her time here with shaping her academic and professional journey. She went on to earn a B.A. in Legal Studies from SUNY Purchase College and her law degree from New York Law School. In 2023, Ms. Morales returned to RCC as an adjunct professor for the Legal Studies Program and now serves on its advisory committee.

Beyond her legal practice, Ms. Morales is actively involved in the legal community. She currently serves on the board of directors of the Rockland County Women's Bar Association and the Legal Aid Society of Rockland County, Inc. She also co-chairs the Immigration Law Committee of the Rockland County Bar Association and previously served on the board of directors of the Dominican Bar Association. Additionally, she is deeply committed to giving back, volunteering with local nonprofit organizations, and providing pro bono representation to individuals in need.

Today, as the keynote speaker, she returns to where her journey began, eager to inspire graduates to embrace their own paths with courage, resilience, and purpose.

The College Symbols

There are three key symbols of Rockland Community College that express the history and tradition of the College. The special occasion of Commencement is distinguished by the use of these meaningful symbols.

The Chain of Office

The Presidential Chain of Office of Rockland Community College consists of ten frames, alternating with round links made up of concentric initials “RCC” and displaying the map of Rockland County on the right side of the circle. Each of the frames illustrates one of the ten academic programs and carries in the center a globe flanked by olive leaves, indicating the College’s contribution to world peace through its strong emphasis on community service.

The front of the chain shows the frames for the Liberal Arts, Health Sciences, Engineering, Performing Arts, Nursing and Natural Sciences programs, and the pentagonal medallion depicting the College Seal. The medallion also pays homage to the community that Rockland Community College serves, with the green acrylic representing the County colors and the rocks flanking the pentagonal frames depict the beautifully-rugged Hudson River shore line.

In the center of the back of the chain is a shield showing the map of Rockland County surrounded by an engraved inscription and five rays, which are symbolic of the Business Administration, International and Criminal Justice programs.

The chain was designed and made by Kurt Matzdorf, Professor Emeritus of Gold and Silversmithing at the State University of New York College at New Paltz.

The Seal

The Seal of Rockland Community College brings together the relationship with the State University of New York. The gold plated State University of New York seal surrounded by the inscription “Rockland Community College” shows the heritage of the school.

The Mace

The ornamental staff, which serves as the official symbol of Rockland Community College, is a gift from the Rockland Community College Foundation. The Mace symbolizes the College’s governing authority and is only used in proceedings that have official sanction.

The Mace was designed and crafted by silversmith and sculptor Harold Schremmer of West Warwick, Rhode Island. It is a study in diverse and contrasting wood, metals, texture and color. At its crown is a bronze medallion displaying the Rockland County seal on one side and the New York State seal on the reverse. Beneath the crown is a sterling silver glove with a ring of thick metal letters spelling “Rockland Community College, 1959.” The wood staff is sculpted from decorative Purple Heart wood in a non- glossy oil finish. The Mace’s counter balance is of copper and bronze in a dark patina. The segmented form was designed to convey the feeling of the original medieval mace design.

History of Rockland Community College

A look back at the history of Rockland Community College reveals an institution that has grown deep roots in the community for more than half a century. From its inception, Rockland Community College was envisioned as an institution that would serve all of the residents of Rockland County, but in particular those who, for a variety of reasons, lacked the opportunity to pursue higher education. Based on the doctoral thesis of Ramapo Central School District Superintendent Lester E. Rounds, and through the work of the Rockland County Community College Committee, the College became a reality in 1959. Sponsored by the Rockland County Board of Supervisors, approved by the State Department of Education and supported by local and state funds, Rockland Community College's first students attended classes in the former Rockland County Welfare Home (now the Administration Building – Brucker Hall).

The College's responsiveness to the community was reflected in the variety of courses, schedules and mix of students when it opened its doors on September 30, 1959. Some students were homemakers with children to care for. One was a woman who had never completed high school because she had lived in Africa during her teens. Of the men, seven were beyond "traditional" college age, some were veterans and some were disabled. A few were recent immigrants who had completed high school equivalency requirements. An additional ten-percent of that class was comprised of students who had withdrawn from four-year institutions.

As is underlining the word community, the initial schedule of day classes was promptly expanded to include evening and weekend classes for a working adult population every bit as eager to learn as the younger "traditional" student. Today, that same prompt recognition of, and response to, student interests and needs remain the hallmark of Rockland Community College.

In addition to the main campus in Suffern, the College offers conveniently located learning opportunities throughout Rockland County. The Herbert Kurz Automotive Technology Center in Orangeburg offers specialized career training in a state-of-the-art facility, and the Hospitality and Culinary Arts Center in Nyack, incorporates the newest ideas in the culinary arts.

The College also offers a portfolio of in-demand workforce and career development programs designed to prepare learners for a new economy, connect learners to economic opportunities, and solve employer talent needs. This includes microcredentials, industry-specific workforce credentials, and community education programs available to all, from young adults graduating high school to older learners looking to upskill.

Starting with a full-time enrollment of 139 men and women who risked a new and untried school more than half a century ago, Rockland Community College has become a focal point in the educational, cultural and economic life of the region. In the best and truest sense of the word, "Community" remains its middle name.
